Warranties and Information

For the purposes of debt recovery services it is agreed that from time to time the Client may lodge with Tasmanian Collection Service unpaid accounts for collection. For each lodgment Tasmanian Collection Service will act as and is hereby authorised to act as the mercantile agent of the Client and the Client agrees to pay both the collection charges of Tasmanian Collection Service and the costs and expenses incurred by Tasmanian Collection Service in the undertaking of steps to recover payment for accounts so lodged. Commission is payable on any amount collected after the account is lodged.

For the purposes of credit reporting services the Client acknowledges and the Privacy Act 1988 specifies that the Client requires authority from their customers to access their customer's Consumer Credit Information File. The Client also requires authority for access to an individuals Commercial Credit Information File. The Client agrees that they will only access Credit Information Files with due authority and for those purposes permitted under the Privacy Act 1988.

The Client notes that further information in relation to the duties imposed by the Privacy Act 1988 can be obtained from the Office of the Privacy Commissioner on 1300 363 992 or at www.privacy.gov.au.

Tasmanian Collection Service warrants all information provided to it by its Clients will be used in a manner prescribed by State and Federal legislation.

Authority

Unless the Client advises to the contrary, the Client authorises Tasmanian Collection Service to record debts lodged by the Client on its Credit Information File in accordance with the type of credit provider the Client has specified in this Agreement, and to update changes in the status of those debts as they occur. Should the client provide both consumer and commercial credit (as specified above) all debts lodged will be treated as commercial debts unless advised otherwise.
